Motion to accept minutes by Kjarten, 2nd - Cunegonda, motion carried.

Officer reports:

MOS: No Report

Heraldry: Nothing to Report, Show off Heraldry Banners.

Archery: Office is currently open, accepting applications for next month. John and Allison will be retaking their level 2 provincially certified coaching.

A&S:

Chatelaine: I have had some inquires for archery and feast and am working to place these individuals in contact with the right sources. I have also had a request from a school about putting forth a demonstration (i.e. a talk) on daily life. Other then that all is well and hoping to see some new faces at Yule.

Exchequer:

Chamberlaine: Still have stuff

Chronicler: Quarterly report is done. Resigning. Accepting applications for next month.

Idea put forward that one wishing to receive hard copy can pay $2.00/month, include minutes, contact info, newsletter etc.

Seneschal: Went to the Admin retreat, was fabulous.

YULE: will be at the Kin Hut in Port Alberni, Attilla's mom will be our Chef. The Prince and Princess will be attending. They will hold court. Lunch is to be a picnic style luncheon. Prudence will ask her sister to make us a hog's head cake to present to the Prince and Princess.

TUTR: event bid still needed. If we do not have one it will be cancelled.

So far we have one bid for War in September and Yule.

Tokens: Samples were shown of wooden hound, antler with painted hoof prints and on wood. We need to talk to Attilla about leather work for belts. Now we need a description for what each award stand for. Put this to the Populace. "Guard" to be prepared for first awarding at War. Possible name for the Hound token - St. Guinefort.

Motion to adjourn by Cunegonda, 2nd Kjartan

Meeting adjourned 2:32 pm.
