

Arts and Sciences Report – June 2018
Lady Freydis Mannaskelfir, Acting Minister of Arts and Sciences
Shire of Hartwood

Monthly Update:

- 🕒 Hartwood members continue to actively participate in the monthly Principality-wise Virtual A&S Monday.
- 🕒 Arts and Sciences had a good turn out for the Super Practice
- 🕒 Weekly A&S nights in Courtenay continue to have strong attendance.
- 🕒 Weekly A&S nights in Cambel River continue to have strong attendance
- 🕒 Bi-Weekly A&S workshop nights in Duncan continue to have strong attendance
- 🕒 Weekly A&S nights in Nanaimo continue to have attendance, but every other week seems to be better attended. A&S night schedual changed to every other week.
- 🕒 A&S nights in Port Alberni were not held since last report.
- 🕒 Work on the Herald's Tabard has stalled for personal reasons. Will get back onto it this week.

A&S Nights – Attendance and Activities

Courtenay A&S:

May 16: 7 Attendees. Sprang, leather work, weaving, wire work.

May 23: 8 Attendees. Weaving, various string things, huge discussion on crossbows, antler working.

May 30: 3 Attendees. There was weaving and making crossbow strings. Also conversation about upcoming events, persona development, upcoming TUTOR classes, and future workshop ideas.

June 6: 5 Attendees. There was weaving, leather work, wood work, carving, illumination.

Campbell River A&S

May 17: 4 Attendees. Kumihimo, project planning.

May 24: Cancelled

June 7: 9 Attendees. There was sewing, gaming, nalbinding, inkle weaving and lots of conversation.

Nanaimo A&S:

May 15: 6 Attendees. There was Herald Tabard work, tablet weaving, crossstitching, scroll painting, largess making, needle felt designing.

May 22: 2 Attendees. There was crossstitching and conversation.

May 29: 2 Attendees. There was needle point and conversation.

Port Alberni A&S:

Nothing to report

Duncan A&S:

May 24: 7 Attendees. Mi'lady Nualla taught a leather bound books workshop.

May 31: 6 Attendees. Mi'lady Nualla taught a dipped beeswax candles workshop.

Super Practice A&S:

June 2: Lots of people showed up. There were two people doing tablet weaving, one doing arrow making. Lots of activities.